

Registration Checklist for Thai and Thailand-Based Foreign Media

Attending 2026 IMF-WBG Annual Meetings

1. Event Registration must be completed online via the IMF website (On-site registration will not be available). The online registration system will be open from 6 July 2026 to 25 September 2026. Registration is free of charge and can be completed online 24 hours a day.

2. Identification Documents and Media Credentials Required for Registration (Please upload all required documents to the registration system in file format.)

2.1 Thai Media and Thai Journalists Working for Foreign News Agencies, Including All Photographers and Production Crew Members Who Will Rotate During the Event, must submit the following documents:

(1) Copy of your Thai National ID Card

(2) Valid press ID card

- For journalists affiliated with a news organization: A valid press ID card issued by your news organization or a valid media ID issued by Thailand's Public Relations Department (PRD), with a clear photograph.

- For freelance personnel (e.g., photographers or video crew hired on a freelance basis): An assignment letter from the hiring organization, printed on the organization's official letterhead, specifying the dates of assignment during the Annual Meetings.

(3) A recent photograph, with white background, taken within the past six months, full-face view with a clear image and no sunglasses

2.2 Foreign Media Working and Residing in Thailand, must submit the following documents:

(1) Copy of your valid passport and

(2) A valid press ID card issued by Thailand's Public Relations Department (PRD).

2.3 Thai Journalists Without a Press ID card

- If you do not currently hold a valid membership or identification card, we kindly ask that you register with one of the following organizations. Once registered, please submit the relevant membership or identification card as supporting documentation for your application:

(1) The Thai Journalists Association

(2) The Economic Reporters Association

(3) The Government Public Relations Department

3. Your registration will be considered complete only upon receipt of a confirmation email from event-information@certain.com.
 - Should you not receive any communication within two weeks of submitting your registration, please contact us at MassmediaAM2026@bot.or.th for further assistance.